

Clara lives with her grandmother ever since a baby. Her parents died in a car accident and she was the only survivor.

Before bed, everynight her grandmother tells Clara a story...

Once upon a time... magical creatures disguises as ordinary animals to blend in the real world who's powers help guard the world from evil.

Yet theres evil monsters lurking in the shadows. their powers are strong but stronger if theres a dark soul involved.

4 yrs later..

Hi Clara, remember the story I told you years ago about the animal protectors & their magical creatures companions?

Morning grams, How are you? What's that in your hands?

Yes! How each person has a magical creature that protects them from being in the influence of evil & vice versa.
Why?

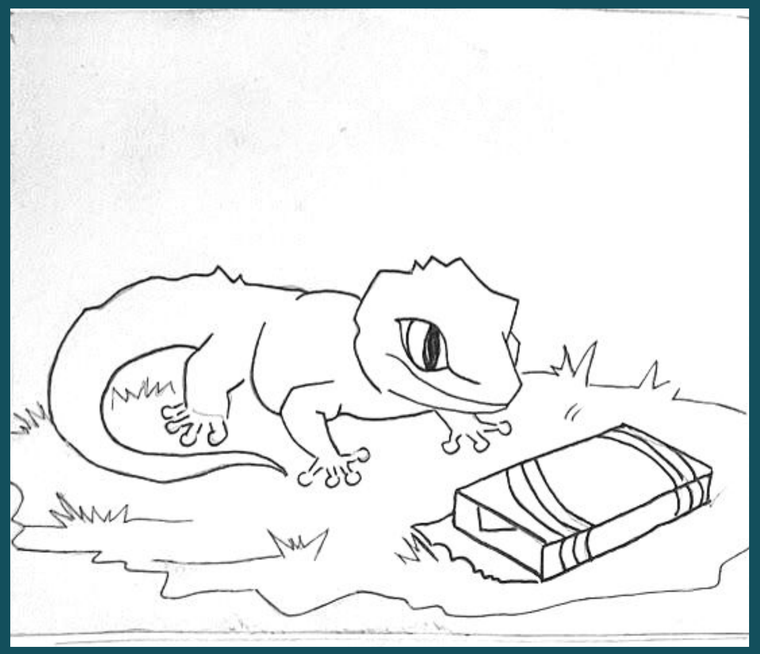

Good that you remember! Also at a certain age you get to meet your friend

Well Clara, I think you are ready to meet your friend...
